

CIA activities that involve new policy considerations in discharging its statutory responsibilities as well as renewal requests to continue activities having previously received policy consideration will be referred to the Office of General Counsel for comment before implementation.

The General Counsel in pursuit of his responsibilities to approve the legal aspects of all Agency contractual obligations is, at his option, authorized to inquire on and comment upon the legality of the substance of the undertaking.